Government of India's Decisions

1. A doubt was raised whether the power of relaxing rules was intended to be applicable to 'recruitment rules' also.

The Government of India have held that the 'recruitment rules' cannot be relaxed under Rule 3 of the A.I.S. (Conditions of Service-Residuary Matters) Rules, 1960. [M.H.A. F. No. 14/2/55-AIS (III)].

2. A question arose regarding the extent of the powers vested in the Government under Rule 3 of the A.I.S. (Conditions of Service-Residuary Matters) Rules, 1960, to deal with cases involving relaxation to rules and regulations.

The Government of India have held that :—

- (a) undue hardship signifies unforeseen or unmerited hardship to an extent not contemplated with the rule was framed and does not cover any ordinary hardship or inconvenience which normally arises,
- (b) the relaxation should enable the case to be dealt with in a just and equitable manner and not on grounds of compassion however justified; and
- (c) the benefit to be conferred in relaxation of any rule or rules must be of a nature already provided for in the rules ; Government are not empowered by this rule to confer benefits which are not contemplated in the rules. [G.I. M.H.A. Letter No. 30/1/63-AIS (II), dated 1st January, 1966].

¹[4. Interpretation.—If the question arises as to the interpretation of these rules, or relating to the application or interpretation of rules, regulations or orders referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of Rule 2 the Central Government shall decide the same].
