APPENDIX-A

CODE OF CONDUCT

(See rule 25 A)

(1) Should uphold the integrity and independence of judiciary :-

An independent and honourable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining and enforcing and should personally observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. A judge shall always be aware that the judicial system is for the benefit of the litigant and the public, and not the judiciary. The provisions of this chapter should be construed and applied to further these objectives.

(2) Should avoid impropriety :-

(i) Public confidence in the judiciary is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct by judges. A judge must avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety. A judge must expect to be the subject of constant public scrutiny. A judge must therefore accept restrictions on conduct that might be viewed as burdensome by the ordinary citizen and should do so freely and willingly.

(ii) A judge shall respect and observe the law. At all times, the conduct and manner of a judge should promote public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. Without regard to a person's race, gender, or other protected personal characteristic, a judge should treat every person fairly, with courtesy and respect.

(iii) A judge shall not allow family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. A judge shall not lend the prestige of judicial office to advance his private interests or those of others. A judge shall not convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence the Judge. A judge shall not appear as a character witness in a Court proceeding subpoenaed.

(iv) A judge shall not allow activity as a member of an organization to cast doubt on the judge's ability to perform the function of the office in a manner consistent with the code of judicial conduct and the laws of the State. A judge shall not hold the membership of an organization activities of which discriminate, or appear discriminate, on the basis of race, gender, or other protected personal characteristic. Nothing in this paragraph should be interpreted to diminish a judge's right to free exercise of religion.

(3) Performance of duties impartially and diligently :-

(i) A judge shall be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. A judge should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamour, or fear of criticism.

- (ii) A judge may require lawyers, court personnel, and litigants to be appropriately attired for Court and should reasonably maintain rules of conduct, order and decorum in the Courtroom.
- (iii) A judge shall be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in official capacity, and should require similar conduct from lawyers, and or staff, Court officials, and others subject to the judge's direction and control.
- (iv) A judge shall not initiate, permit, or consider ex-parte communications made to the judge in the absence of the parties concerning a pending or impending proceeding.
- (v) A judge shall hear and decide matters assigned to the judge except those in which disqualification is attracted.
- (vi) A judge shall perform judicial duties without bias or prejudice, including but not limited to bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, disability, age, sexual orientation or socioeconomic status, and shall not permit staff, Court officials and others under his administrative control to be so biased or prejudiced.
- (vii) A judge shall dispose of all judicial matters speedily, effectively and fairly.
- (viii) A judge shall not, while a proceeding is pending or impending in any Court, make any public comment that might reasonably be expected to affect its outcome or impair its fairness or make any nonpublic comment that might substantially interfere with a fair trial or hearing. The judge shall require similar abstention on the part of Court personnel subject to the judge's direction and control. This clause does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the Court. This clause does not apply to proceedings in which the judge is a litigant in a personal capacity.
- (ix) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording or taking of photographs in or out of the court room during session of court or recess between sessions except as authorized by the High Court.
- (x) (a) A judge may properly intervene in a trial of a case to promote expedition, and prevent unnecessary waste of time, or to clear up some obscurity, but the Judge should bear in mind that undue interference, impatience, or participation in the examination of witness, or severe attitude on the judge's part toward witness, especially those who are excited or terrified by the unusual circumstances of a trial, may tend to prevent the proper presentation of the cause, or the ascertainment of truth in respect thereto.

- (b) Conversation between the judge and counsel in Court is often necessary, but the judge should be studious to avoid controversies that apt to obscure the merits of the dispute between litigants and lead to unjust disposition. In addressing counsel, litigants, or witness, the judge should avoid a controversial manner or tone.
 - (c) A judge shall avoid interruptions of counsel in their arguments except clarify their positions, and should not be tempted to the unnecessary display of learning or premature judgment.
 - (xi) A judge shall adopt the usual and accepted methods of doing justice; avoid the imposition of humiliating acts or discipline, not authorized by law in sentencing and endeavour to conform to a reasonable standard or punishment and not seek popularity or publicity either by exceptional severity or undue leniency.
 - (xii) A judge shall be punctual in attending court and do judicial work during Court hours. He shall ensure punctuality of the staff and Court Officials.
 - (xiii) A judge should diligently discharge administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and Court officials.
 - (xiv) A judge should not cause unnecessary expense by making appointments. All appointments shall be based on merit.
 - (xv) A judge should not approve compensation beyond the fair value of services rendered.
- (4) Extra judicial and quasi-judicial activities :-
- (I) As a judicial officer and person specially learned in the law, a judge is in unique position to contribute to the improvement of the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, including revision of substantive and procedural law and improvement of criminal and juvenile justice. To the extent time permits, and without affecting his judicial work, a judge is encouraged to do so, either independently or through a Bar Association, judicial conference, or other organization dedicated to the improvement of the law.
 - (II) A judge, subject to the proper performance of judicial duties and to the extent time permits, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities:-
 - (a) A judge may speak, write, lecture, teach and participate in other activities concerning only the law, the legal, and the administration of justice; and

- (b) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on the judge's impartiality or judicial office, interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties, exploit the judicial position, demean the judicial office or involve the judge in transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which the judge serves.
- (III) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on the judge's impartiality or judicial office, interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties, exploit the judicial position, demean the judicial office or involve the judge in transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which the judge serves.
- (IV) A judge should serve as an executor, administrator, testamentary trustee, or guardian.
- (V) A judge should act as an arbitrator or mediator.
- (VI) A judge should not practice law for remuneration.
- (VII) A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position without the permission of the High Court in writing.
- (VIII) A judge should not be a member or, or hold any office in a political party.
- (IX) A judge shall not make speeches on behalf of a political party or endorse a candidate for a political office.
- (X) A judge shall keep informed about the judge's personal and fiduciary economic interests and make a reasonable disclosure of the judge's personal economic interests and the judge's spouse and children residing in the judge's household.
- (XI) A judge shall not conduct any extra-judicial activities which may
 - (a) cast reasonable doubt on the judge's capacity to act impartially as a judge;
 - (b) demean the judicial office; or
 - (c) interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties.
- (XII) A judge shall not serve as an officer, director, trustee or legal advisor if it is likely that the concerned organization,-
 - (a) will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before the judges; or

- (b) will be engaged frequently in adversary proceedings in the Court of which the judge is a member or in any Court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the Court of which the judge is a member.
- (XIII) A judge and members of the judge's family residing in the judge's household shall not accept, a gift, bequest, favour or loan from any one except for;
- (a) a gift incident to a public testimonial, books, tapes and other resource materials supplied by the publishers on a complimentary basis for official use, or an invitation to the judge and the judge's spouse or guest to attend a bar-related function or any activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system or the administration of justice;
 - (b) a gift award or benefit incident to the business, profession or other separate activity of a spouse or other family member of a judge residing in the judge's household, including gifts, awards and benefits for the use of both the spouse or other family members and the judge (as spouse or family member), provided the gift, award or benefit could not reasonably be perceived as intended to influence the judge in the performance of judicial;
 - (c) ordinarily social hospitality;
 - (d) a gift from a relative or friend, for a special occasion, such as a wedding, anniversary or birthday, if the gift is fairly commensurate with the occasion and the relationship;
 - (e) a gift, bequest, favour or loan from a relative or close personal friend whose appearance or interest in a case would in any event require disqualification under rule 27;
 - (f) a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges;
 - (g) a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms and based on the same criteria applied to other applicants; or
 - (h) any other gift, bequest favour or loan, only if the donor is not a party or other person who has come or is likely to come or whose interest have come or are likely to come before the judge;
